National Curriculum subject content:

Comprehension:

- ✓ develop pleasure in reading, motivation to read, vocabulary and understanding by:
- ✓ listening to and discussing a wide range of poems, stories and non-fiction at a level beyond that at which they can read independently
- ✓ being encouraged to link what they read or hear read to their own experiences
- ✓ becoming very familiar with key stories, fairy stories and traditional tales, retelling them and considering their particular characteristics
- ✓ recognising and joining in with predictable phrases
- ✓ learning to appreciate rhymes and poems, and to recite some by heart
- ✓ discussing word meanings, linking new meanings to those already known
- ✓ understand both the books they can already read accurately and fluently and those they listen to by:
- ✓ drawing on what they already know or on background information and vocabulary provided by the teacher
- ✓ checking that the text makes sense to them as they read and correcting inaccurate reading
- ✓ discussing the significance of the title and events
- ✓ making inferences on the basis of what is being said and done
- ✓ predicting what might happen on the basis of what has been read so far
- ✓ participate in discussion about what is read to them, taking turns and listening to what others say
- ✓ explain clearly their understanding of what is read to them#

Whilst on a lovely walk in the woods, Billy and her trusty sidekick Fatcat hear a terrible rumble... a terrible rumble coming from a Terrible Beast. He's making a Terrible Soup out of all of Billy and Fatcat's friends! Luckily, our brave heroine Billy has a trick or two up her sleeve (or in her hair)...

Word Reading:

- ✓ apply phonic knowledge and skills as the route to decode words
- ✓ respond speedily with the correct sound to graphemes (letters or groups of letters) for all 40+ phonemes, including, where applicable, alternative sounds for graphemes
- ✓ read accurately by blending sounds in unfamiliar words containing GPCs that have been taught
- ✓ read common exception words, noting unusual correspondences between spelling and sound and where these occur in the word
- ✓ read words containing taught GPCs and -s, -es, -ing, -ed, -er and -est endings
- ✓ read other words of more than one syllable that contain taught GPCs
- ✓ read words with contractions [for example, I'm, I'll, we'll], and understand that the apostrophe represents the omitted letter(s)
- ✓ read aloud accurately books that are consistent with their developing phonic knowledge and that do not require them to use other strategies to work out words
- ✓ re-read these books to build up their fluency and confidence in word reading.
